GOSSIP OF THE SPORTS

Fighters in Shape for Tournament at Spa A. C.

Feathers Evenly Matched—Jones and Banks Will Be Equal Favorites in Their Contest.

All arrangements have been completed for the fight which will be held at the Spa A. C. Club next Tuesday night. The go-between the Australian champion "Fut" Ryan and big Tom McCarthy is attracting the attention of the entire athletic world. It will be the first appearance in this country of the Antipodean who is matched to fight Peter Maher for a purse of $10,000, and the admission of the night will be $2.00. He is said to be a wonderful fighter, and capable of standing a great amount of punishment. He will have his hands full in McCarthy, who is a strong, shifty boxer who can make the best of them, keep on the jump.

Of course Ryan will be a big favorite, but this is not to be wondered at, as the Australian has many followers in his fight with Maher. This Hall is managing Ryan, and will probably arrive in the city with his change this afternoon. He intended to come yesterday, but decided it would be better to stay over Sunday in his training quarters at Long Island.

While this meeting between the big fellows will of course be the event of the night, the twenty-round or more battle between Tony Banks and Arthur Jones, the local featherweights, will be worth giving a long way to see. The question of supremacy between these youngsters has for so long been a bone of contention among the local followers of the game that it will be a relief to have it finally settled. These boys are bitter enemies, and the rivalry between them has been a long-standing one. They have met three times in an effort to settle the matter, but up to date their efforts have been of no avail. The first time they came together Banks was given a doubtful decision, but the next two meetings were decided draws.

The betting on the battle has been an even thing up to date, but for some unknown reason there is a tendency to make Jones a slight favorite. The management of the club has made arrangements to run "houses" to the fight from the Owen House, Coleman's and the National Hotel at 8 o'clock tomorrow night.

Worth the Waiting.

For two months I've been trying to buy a line of Trousers at a price that would allow me to offer you one of the old values. In this time Woollens have advanced 30 per cent, and the wholesalers are now holding for a further rise. The right opportunity finally presented itself, and I've bought a line of patterns at prices that would have been low when goods were at their cheapest. There isn't a common-looking piece in the lot. I'll make you Trousers that can be worn upon the most dressy occasion. They'll be stylishly cut, carefully tailored, and must fit perfectly or we'll keep them. Any pattern you may choose will cost $2.75—no more, no less.
